

TURKEY IN THE BARNYARD

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with a hat upon her head.

It was big and ruby red,
that old hat upon her head.

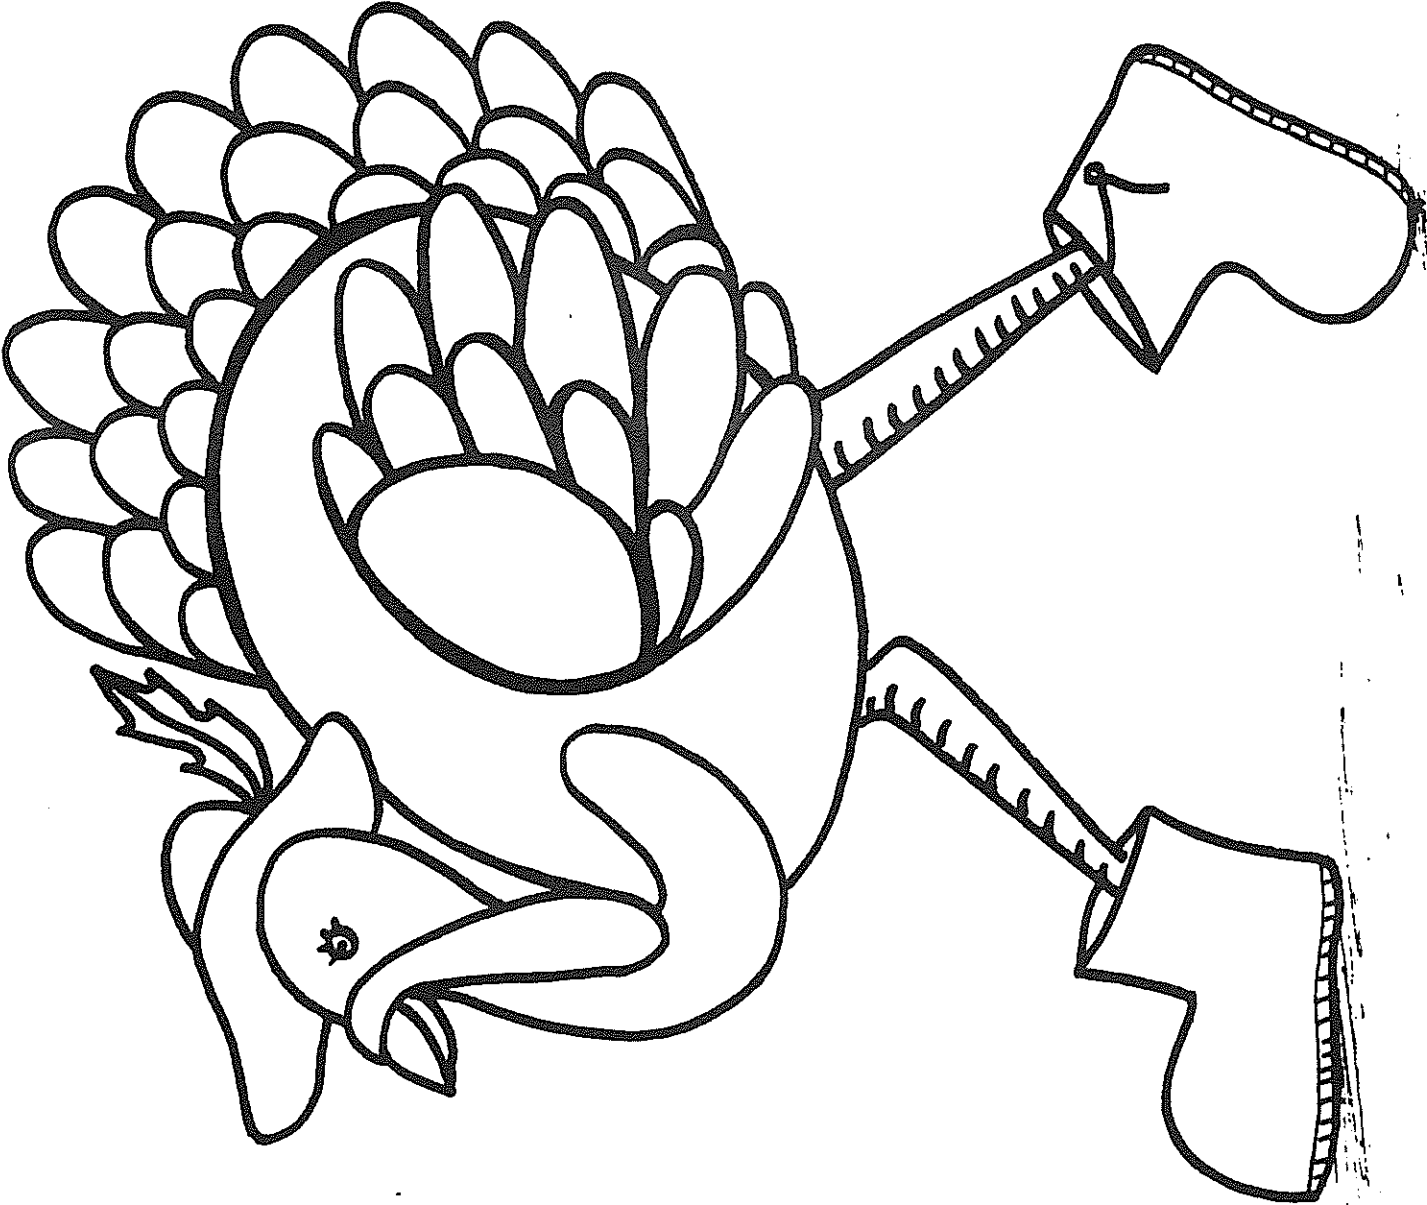

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with a hat upon her head,
saying "OH, NO! I won't go to dinner."

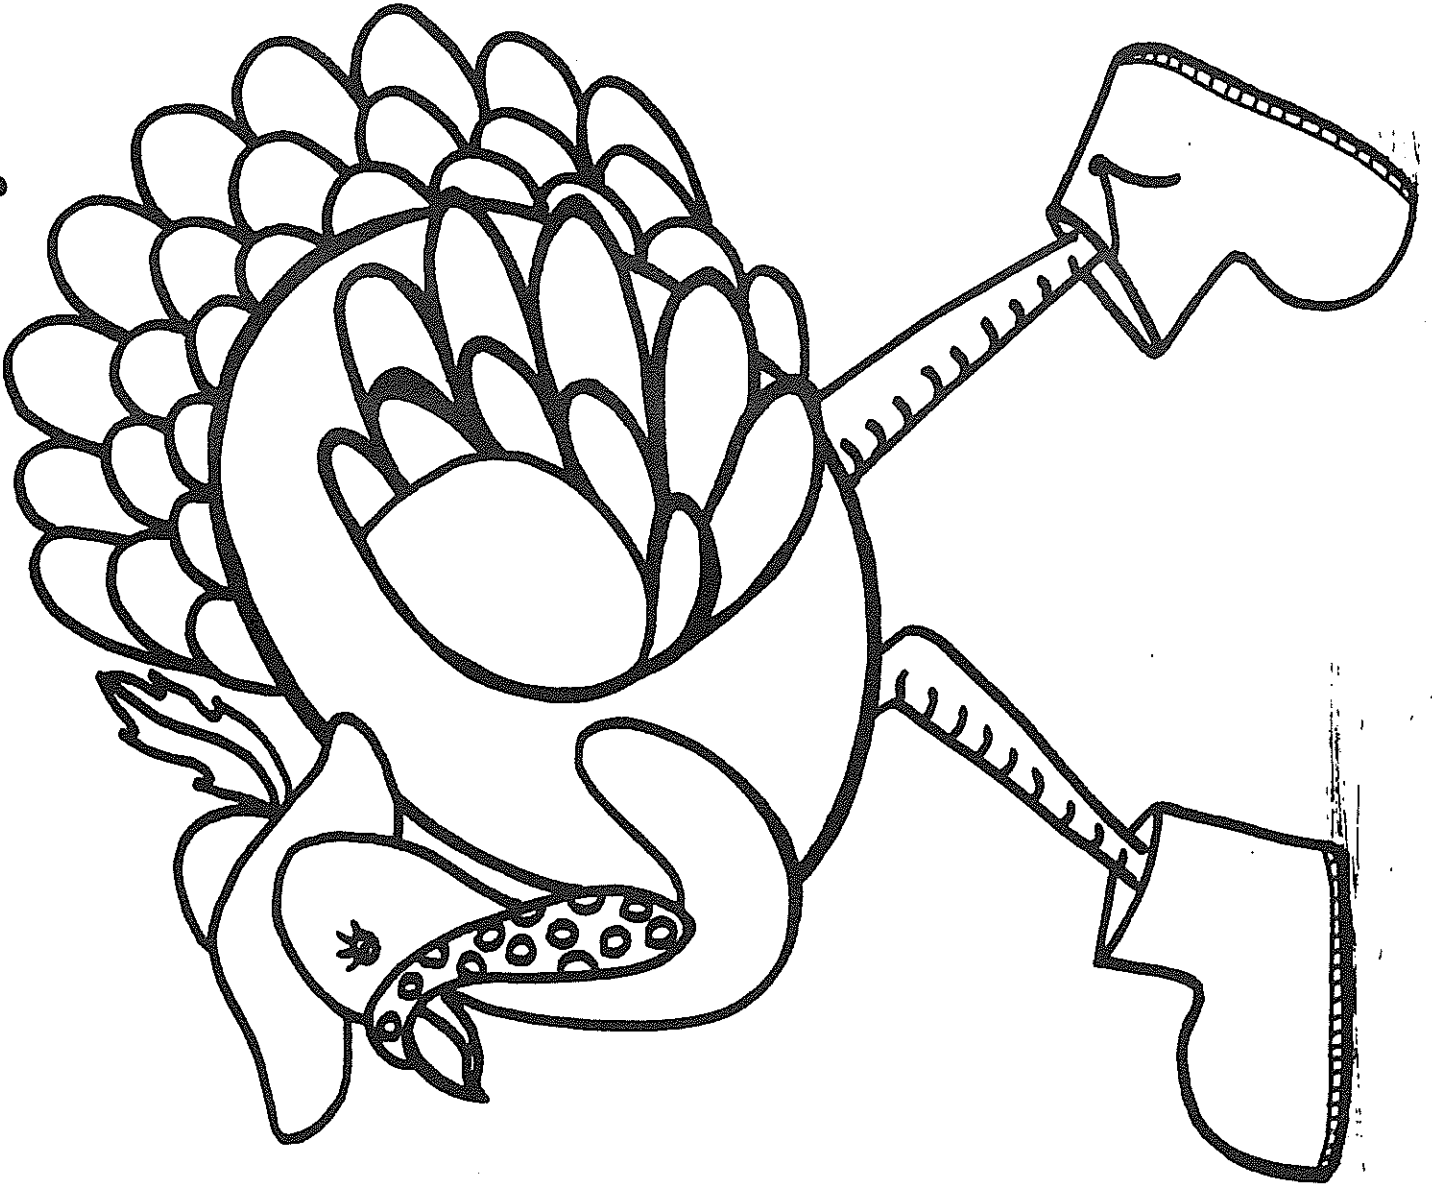

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with galoshes on her feet.

She was looking pretty neat,
with galoshes on her feet.

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with galoshes on her feet,
saying "OH, NO! I won't go to dinner."

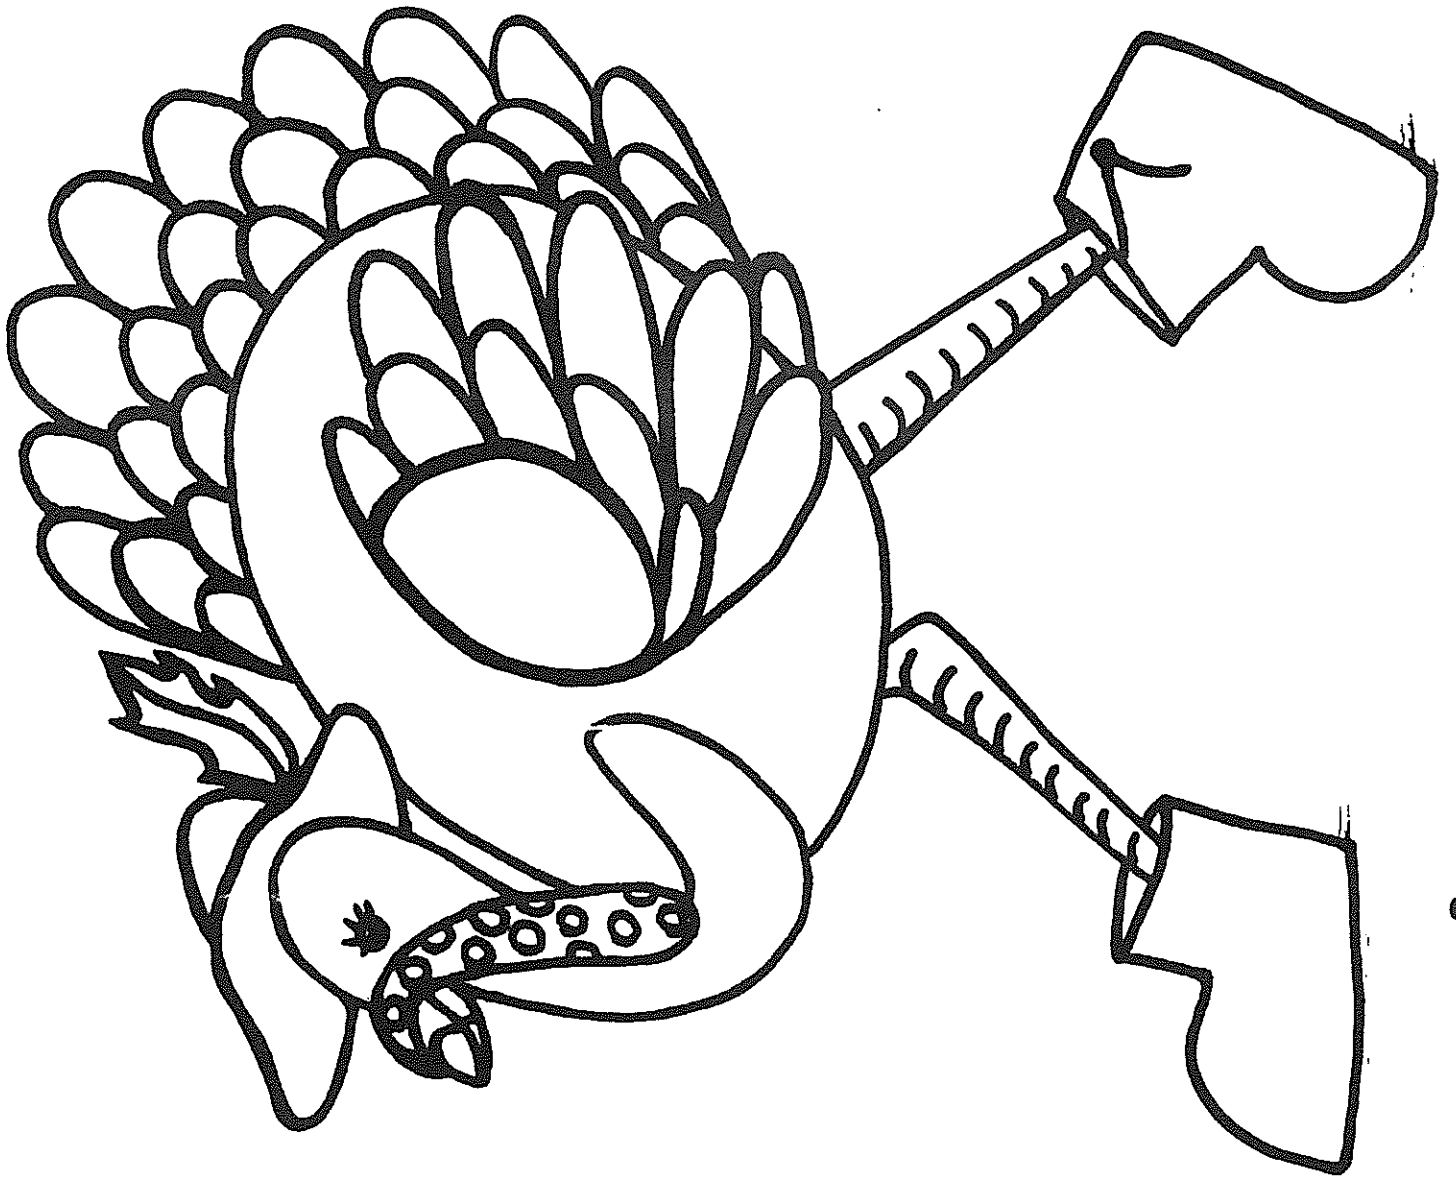

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with a polka dotted wattle.
Singing gobble-gobble-gobble,
with a polka dotted wattle.
I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with a polka dotted wattle,
saying "OH, NO! I won't go to dinner."

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with some lipstick on her beak.

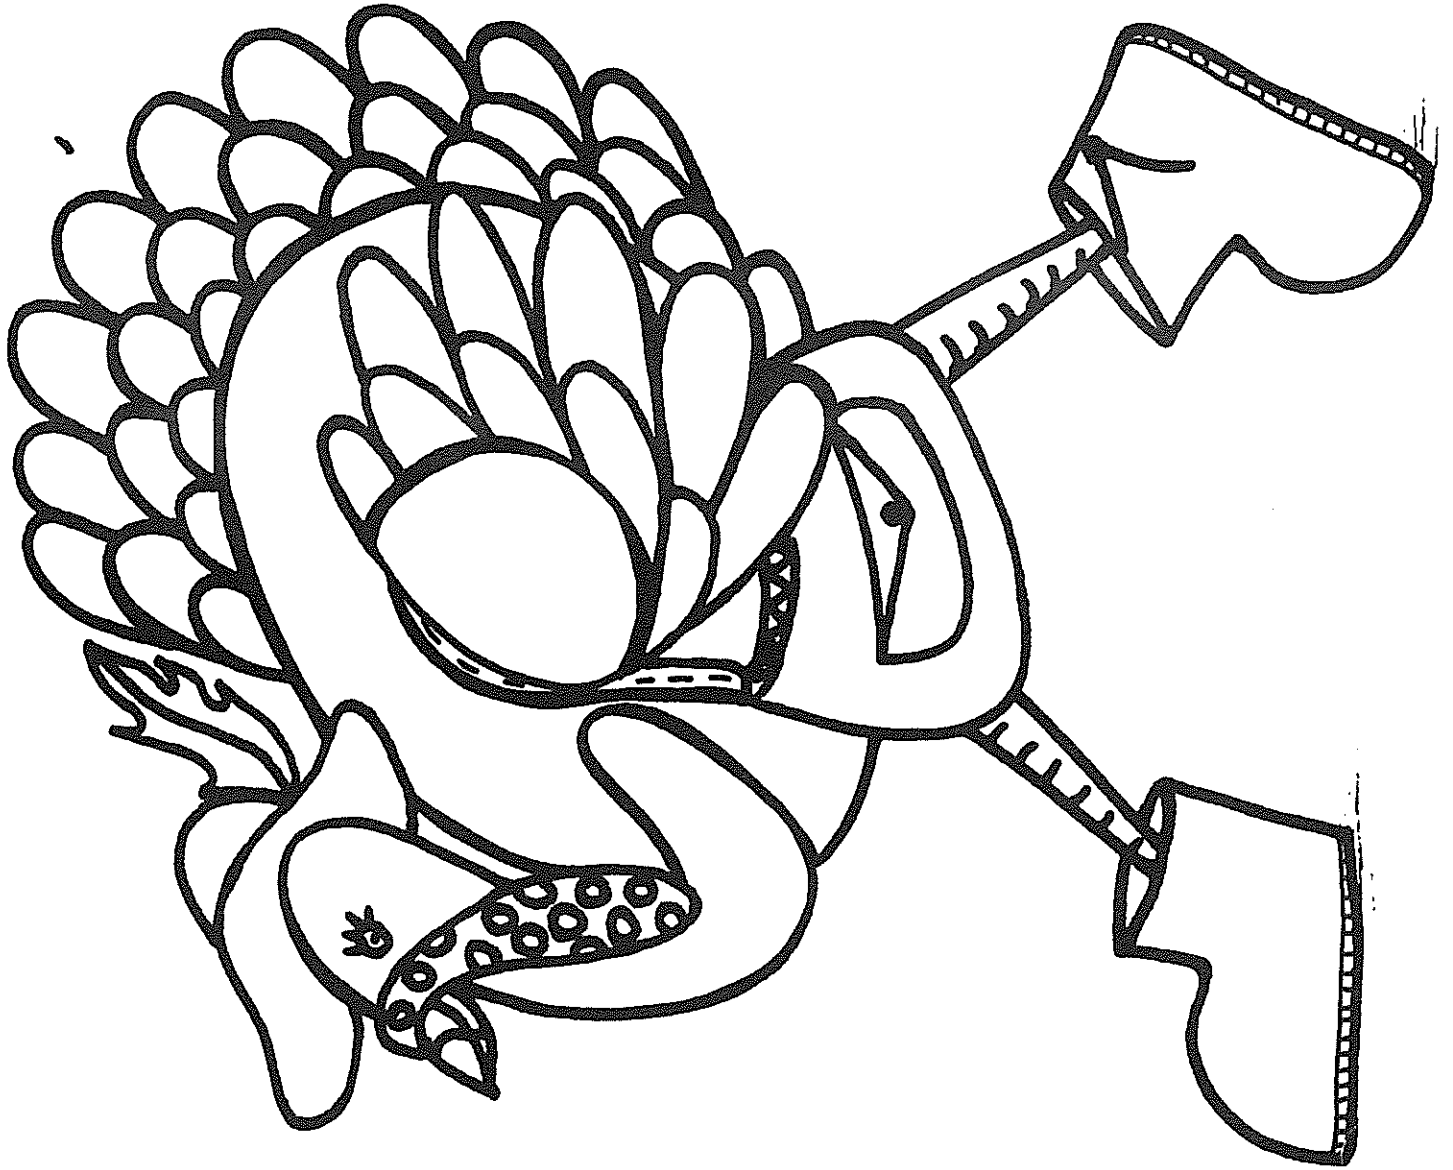

When I took a peek,
there was some lipstick on her beak.

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with some lipstick on her beak,
saying "OH, NO! I won't go to dinner."

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with a purse under her wing.
She was walking with a swing,
with a purse under her wing.

I saw a turkey in the barnyard
with a purse under her wing,
saying "OH, NO! I won't go to dinner."

Now there's no turkey in the barnyard,
for she must have slipped away.

She was going far away,
when she slowly slipped away.
Now there's no turkey in the barnyard
for she must have slipped away,
saying "OH, NO! I won't go to dinner."

o

n

l

e

n

l

Turkey In The Barnyard

J. Bruggenkamp & A. Stephens

G7 C
 I saw a turkey in the barnyard with a hat upon her head. It was
 F G7
 big and rubby red, that old hat upon her head. I saw a C
 turkey in the barnyard with a hat upon her head, sing - ing
 F G7 C
 "OH, NO! I won't go to dinner."
 ner."

Remaining Verses:

I saw a turkey in the barnyard with galoshes on her feet. She was looking pretty neat with galoshes on her feet.
 I saw a turkey in the barnyard with galoshes on her feet, saying "Oh, no! I won't go to dinner."
 I saw a turkey in the barnyard with a polka dotted wattle. Singing gobble-gobble-gobble with her polka dotted wattle.
 I saw a turkey in the barnyard with a polka dotted wattle, saying "Oh no! I won't go to dinner."
 I saw a turkey in the barnyard with some lipstick on her beak. When I took a peak there was some lipstick on her beak.
 I saw a turkey in the barnyard with some lipstick on her beak, saying "Oh, no! I won't go to dinner."
 I saw a turkey in the barnyard with a purse under her wing. She was walking with a swing, with a purse under her wing.
 I saw a turkey in the barnyard with a purse under her wing, saying "Oh, no! I won't go to dinner."
 Now there's no turkey in the barnyard, for she must have slipped away. She was going far away, when she slowly slipped away. Now there's no turkey in the barnyard for she must have slipped away, saying "Oh, no! I won't go to dinner."

